

The CSO embark on one of its most ambitious seasons to date...

We welcome back Thelma Handy (Joint Leader - RLPO) playing the Glazunov Violin Concerto and hear the emotional highs and lows of Tchaikovsky's 6th Symphony. We commemorate the 600th anniversary of the Battle of Agincourt portrayed by Walton in his Henry V Suite.

Our February concert features the CSO's principal Horn in the much loved Mozart 2nd Horn Concerto, with Berlioz's Symphonie Fantastique completing the programme.

The Philharmonic Hall concert, this season in May, includes Mahler's epic Symphony No.2 - a work calling for a huge orchestra, two soloists, (Soprano Barbara Ruzsics and Mezzo, Stephanie Guidera), off-stage brass and percussion and the wonderful Crosby Symphony Chorus.

A Roman themed concert concludes the year in July with works from Beethoven, Khachaturian, Strauss and Respighi with Barbara Ruzsics as the soloist.
