

The CSO's 2016-17 season offers a wide variety of styles, sounds and soloists!

It starts in November with Nielsen's dramatic 4th Symphony and the wonderful Sibelius Violin Concerto with Thelma Handy (RLPO) returning as soloist.

An evening of classical Germanic gems with music from favourites such as Beethoven, Mozart, Brahms and Haydn is scheduled for February.

Falling on St George's day, our April concert celebrates the greatest of British composers and their links with the sea.

The season finalé in July, at Philharmonic Hall, features the Russian greats: Mussorgsky, Rachmaninov and Shostakovich. Local young musician, William Bracken, performs Rachmaninov's 3rd Piano Concerto.
