

Days of Our Lives

Below are some photographs of members of St Faith's congregation taken when these individuals were much younger. The individuals are often members of groups to make recognition a little more difficult.

See who you recognise from those days gone by.

Two of our congregation at school 62 years ago

Two friends at school and now songbirds together in the choir. Val Broom back row centre and on her left is Susie Greenwood

A Young Man aged 8

This is Rick Walker

A young lad and his friends in about 1951

This boy with the stick is Denis Griffiths

At School; amongst these young ladies is a member of St Faith's congregation and a person who was later to become famous on TV.

At the centre of the first row up from the bottom of girls wearing dark cardigan is Maureen Madden. In the row behind Maureen at the right of the picture is Victoria Wood.

Two photographs of the same young lady

These photographs are of Margaret Davies

For some young ladies being Cute
just comes naturally

This is Angie Price.

Men and Motors. Dreaming of days to come?

Look hard and you will recognise our dear departed friend Chris Price.

Another School Group Photograph, this time from 1957.

A school photograph and on the back row at the centre there is a young Eric Salisbury.

National Service

The same person in "civvies" and in uniform (Get that tunic buttoned!).

Ron Rankin during his National Service in the RAF. In the photo on the right Ron is on the left and in the photo on the left Ron is on the right.

Class of 1961.

In those days Co-education had not yet been invented and all secondary school photographs were female or male.

Another school photograph. On the front row second from the left is the future Irene Salisbury. That smile is still there.

A classroom photograph with Fiona Whalley at the front.

At school aged 9 years.

Can you spot our friend?
Clue; it isn't the boy.

Relaxing in the park
Aged six
