Doxa during Lent: Penitence and Prayer

Tuesday Evenings after the Eucharist (approximately 7.30pm to start):

‘Doxa’ means ‘glory,’ and this course starts with the belief that the glory of God is encountered in the ordinary, everyday experiences of Christian people. It is based in what its editor, John Thomson (who is Director of Ministry in the Sheffield Diocese) calls ‘bread and butter’ theology, or ‘the theology of the pew.’ Discipleship happens as ordinary Christian people discover more and more what it means to live as friends of Jesus Christ.

Doxa follows the structure of the Eucharist. We did the first set of three sessions, 'Gathering and Greeting,' back in the Autumn. Now, appropriately for Lent, we have three sessions on the theme of 'Penitence and Prayer.'

1. 24th February 2015: Lamenting Life
 2. 17th March 2015: Dealing with Damage
 3. 24th March 2015: A Praying People
- (3rd February is Clergy Chapter and 10th February is Deanery Synod)

Sunday Evenings During Lent:

6.30pm Lady Chapel: Compline for Lent with Address, followed by discussion.

Theme: A Holy Lent: Called to Repentance, Assured of Forgiveness, Growing in Faith

Addresses given and discussion led by ordinands from The College of the Resurrection, Mirfield:

22nd February: David Adamson

1st March: Kate O'Sullivan

8th March: Tom Carpenter
