

The 2010 Saturday Concerts in St Faith's, Great Crosby

Welcome to the 11th season of our Summer Saturday lunchtime concerts

Isobel Jenkins and Luke Thomas, who sing with Heritage Opera, open the 2010 Saturday Lunchtime Recitals in S. Faith's on Easter Saturday). Whilst we welcome back many musicians and soloists from last year, new additions to our programme include David Holroyd in a non-conducting role playing the piano with Geoff Murdin on cello and accompanying baritone Stuart O'Hara. Wharf Winds are a wind quintet whose members play in the Crosby Symphony Orchestra, the Sefton Soloists are a group of music teachers and our own Kari Dodson and Sam Austin team up on clarinet and piano. The Senior and Junior Choirs from Stanfield, Merchant Taylors' Junior School for Girls are another new addition and in concluding on 28 August with Melanie Harvey, Gregor Cuff and our own Neil Kelley, we can all look forward to a very exciting season.

10 April	Isobel Jenkins (mezzo-soprano) & Luke Thomas (baritone)
17 April	Kari Dodson (clarinet) and Sam Austin (piano)
24 April	Michael Maine (organ)
1 May	Merchant Taylors' School students
8 May	Geoff Murdin ('cello) and David Holroyd (piano)
15 May	Birkdale High School Jazz Band
22 May	Senior and Junior Choirs from Stanfield, Merchant Taylors' Junior School for Girls
29 May	Pamela Ashcroft (mezzo soprano) and Brian Williams (baritone)
5 June	Amadeus – The Chamber Choir
12 June	Wharf Winds (wind quintet)
19 June	Liverpool Youth Ensemble (senior brass)
26 June	Liverpool Youth Ensemble (strings and woodwind)
3 July	Liverpool Festival Choir and Colin Porter
10 July	The Sefton Soloists
17 July	Neil Kelley (piano)
24 July	Melanie Harvey (violin) and Neil Kelley (piano)
31 July	Ian Dunning (baritone)
7 August	Greg Cuff ('cello) and Neil Kelley (piano)
14 August	Pamela Ashcroft (mezzo soprano) and Mike Broom (baritone)
21 August	Stuart O'Hara (baritone) and David Holroyd (piano)
28 August	Melanie Harvey (violin), Greg Cuff (cello) and Neil Kelley (piano)

The church is open from 11.00 am to 1.00 pm, and light refreshments are on sale. The concerts begin at 12 noon. Admission to the church and concerts is free, with a retiring collection towards expenses. Any changes to the programme will be posted on the church website: www.stfaithsgreatcrosby.org.uk

